

4-WEEK PROGRAM: SANGMYUNG UNIVERSITY 2022 JANUARY 3 - 28, 2021

Course Description:

Integrated Skills

This class has the primary goal of helping students achieve fluency and accuracy in English. It also prepares students to use English in a wide variety of academic and social contexts by encouraging them to speak and write about past and contemporary issues, discuss their thoughts and feelings in group discussions and most importantly apply the concepts they have acquired in their speech lessons through dynamic activities. Lastly, the participants will be asked to read about current events and listen for details and main ideas using authentic materials.

Social Club

Social English classes are conversational in nature. The topics revolve around everyday experiences, popular culture and current events. Each class is 1.5 hours long and the topics change monthly to cater to the interests and needs of existing and new students. The modular approach is employed so that the topics will be autonomous and may cater to the specific needs of the students enrolled for a particular

Special Program: Global Leadership

The course provides the students knowledge, skills, and practical tools to take on leadership roles in school, community, or the workplace. It develops critical thinking and communication skills among other necessary soft skills needed in a globalized world. The teaching and learning approach is communicative, wherein students engage with their teacher and peers through workshops and discussions that are

Special Program: Interaction with Enderun Students

In this program, students will have an opportunity to interact with Enderun college students. A variety of topics and interactive tasks will be provided to allow students to use other modes of communication to express their ideas. The class set up is more informal and applies the conversational English approach to give ample opportunities for students to speak and interact.
